Holiday party hosted by 360 Chiropractic at December Chamber meeting

Sauk Rapids, Minn.—The Sauk Rapids Chamber held their monthly meeting Dec. 22 at the Good Shepherd Fellowship Hall. Attendants at the meeting celebrated with a holiday party and listened to host 360 Chiropractic describe their services.

Meeting host 360 Chiropractic featured Dr. Marc Anderson and Kirsten Freeman, who explained that they have three chiropractors on staff, and they treat all ages, including infants, seniors, pregnant women, and athletes. They are the only clinic that uses the Activator Adjusting Instrument exclusively so that they can zero-in on the exact area of a patient's complaint. Also, they treat carpal tunnel syndrome, back and neck problems, and tennis elbow.

Anderson said that it is important for 360 Chiropractic to give to the community. He explained that in 2011, 360 Chiropractic donated $20,000 worth of chiropractic services to Anna Marie's House and also held a Thanksgiving food drive for the Catholic Charities food shelf.

The Sauk Rapids Chamber meets on the fourth Thursday of every month. The next meeting is January 26 at 11:45 a.m. at the Good Shepherd Fellowship Hall, hosted by BankVista. Chamber meetings are open to interested business representatives. There is no cost to attend, but registration is required by January 24. Call the Chamber at 251-2940, ext. 126, or register online at www.SaukRapidsChamber.com.
